

Quorum Health Corporation Receives Court Approval to Complete Prepackaged Recapitalization Plan

BRENTWOOD, Tenn. (June 29, 2020) – Quorum Health Corporation (the “Company”) has received Court approval of its prepackaged plan to recapitalize the business. The decision paves the way for the Company to complete its financial reorganization and successfully emerge from Chapter 11. The Company expects the Court to enter the final order soon and expects to emerge from bankruptcy in early July.

Upon emergence, Quorum Health will reduce its debt by approximately $500 million.

“We are pleased to reach this important milestone, which allows our company to begin a new chapter with the flexibility and resources to continue supporting our community hospitals as they serve on the frontlines of this pandemic and beyond,” said Marty Smith, Quorum Health executive vice president and chief operating officer. “We are grateful for the confidence of our financial stakeholders and partners, as well as our dedicated employees and physicians, and look forward to building on the significant progress we have made in strengthening our operations in recent years.”
